TO THE PUBLIC. A few words is all that is necessary to make known the history and wonderful curative powers of this astonishing remedial agent, the Highland Bitters, or celebrated Scotch Stomachic, which has proved itself, in every instance, to be the only panacea or true talisman to health to the sick and afflicted of every nation and of every clime. It was discovered by George Ballangal, M. D., F. R. S., Professor of Military Surgery in the far-famed University of Edinburg, Scotland. When climatic discusses were cutting off in thousands the British and Except soldiers in the Crimes during the Pression French soldiers in the Crimea, during the Russian War. Sir George Ballangal was appointed by her Majesty, Queen Victoria, as Chief of the Medical MOSBY & RICHARDS'S Commissioners, to investigate, in a scientific man-ner, the extraordinary longevity and remarkable good health which has always characterized the inhabitants of the Scotish Highlands, and the causes which led to such deplorable results to the same individuals when exposed to a change of climate. He, Sir George, discovered by patient research that the Highlanders had been in the habit of using a to their native hills and glens, which, when co bined with oriental aromatics, was found to be the most superlative invigorator and builder up of the Hanger, &c , respectfully solicits a share of ity has ever known. She pulled it this waand that, as if she would tear it to pieces. held it up to the light in different puritions, spat on a corner and rubbed it between her fingers, trying if the colors were good. She then stood still awhile. seemingly not entirely satisfied. At less she cat off a piece with the clerk's scisors, and handing it to a tall, gawky look ing girl, of about sixteen, standing beside her, said :- "Here, Lix Jane, you tak 'n chaw that, 'n see of 't fades." And Lis Jane put it into her month, and duf-
